Dear FHCS Families and Staff,

We are still floating on the Gala success. There are so many people to thank who made the night so memorable: Minnesota Kay and Matt Engler for allowing us to use their gorgeous home. The weather was perfect and guests mingled both upstairs, on one of the many balconies, and in the game room. Pamela and Trevor Thornton generously paid for the alcohol for the entire evening. Former alumni parent, Sue Lyons, prepared and grilled a feast worthy of a five-star restaurant and of course, none of this could have happened at all if it were not for our very own Ms Gina Duxbury.

Gina arranged it all – from the donations, to the bartending service, to Sue’s catering staff – all who volunteered to help. Gina also secured the auctioneer for the evening, John Gibson. John volunteered his time and spent time getting to know the items up for bid as well as help drive up their prices. Because of Gina and her volunteers’ hard work, the event was very profitable with almost all of the ticket sales and auction items going directly into the PTO checking account. This money will help support our teachers and students enriching their FHCS experience.

Thank you to everyone who helped and attended this event! And a special thank you to Ms Carmen and her class who made a fabulous quilt that was our top bid amount for the evening.

Sincerely,

JL Jackson, PTO President
