Gala update

JL Jackson to compile comparison of $18,000 from last year vs. up coming Gala. Goal: $25,000. Auction booklet to be emailed to ticket holders a week in advance. Theater people to mingle and get people excited. Girl Scouts to donate DJ to gala.

Itinerary

5:30pm – Silent Auction begins, cash bar open

7:00pm – Dinner served, buffet style

7:50pm – Plated Dessert

8:00pm – Live Auction

9:00pm – DJ/Dancing

9:30pm – Wall of Wine Raffle – must be present to win

Classroom project ideas on track per memo from Nita Watson. In addition to the projects, many classes are also putting together themed baskets for the silent auction. Possible babysitting idea for Gala night for attendees. Karyn Miller to look into hosting babysitting in the gym.

Dog Contest – update/fundraiser

Gina Duxbury updated the board on the up coming Dog Show scheduled for Saturday, 1/23/10 from 11am-2pm. Registration will begin at 10:30am. There will be 12 categories at $10 per category. Ribbons to be awarded for 1st, 2nd and 3rd places in each category.

They are as follows:

- 1 – Cutest
- 2 – Best Smile
- 3 – Best Growl
- 4 – Best Singer
- 5 – Best Jumper
- 6 – Best Dressed
- 7 – Best Tail Wag
- 8 – Best Dog Trick
- 9 – Most Obedient
- 10-Most Affectionate
- 11-Owner look-a-like
- 12-Best Biscuit Catcher

Best of Show – to be announced and always a crowd pleaser

Gina asked that everyone spread the flyers around town at apartment buildings, Starbucks, Vet offices, Dog Park, etc. Steve Feyrer-Melk to provide a double fence. Do we move the bleachers outside? Debbie Fisher understands how all this works and will be working closely with Gina Duxbury and Karyn Miller.

School Website

Chad Duxbury is updating the website to be more user friendly. Wants to make calendar interactive, etc. More details to follow.

Misc.

Zarco – Face to Face Frenzy, Zarkmask.com. 1 man play, all assembly info should be directed to Karyn Miller. Bach to Beatles Assembly in January already scheduled.

Adjournment

There being no further business to come up during the meeting, it was unanimously agreed to adjourn the meeting at 4:30pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Lydia Moore
