Dear Families and Staff of FHCS,

Our kids and their teachers are in the final weeks of school. However, that does not mean teaching and learning have ended. My kid's teacher sent home a note requesting that we remind our kids to practice good student behaviors. (I am assuming the note went to the whole class – but it would not be shocking if it was only sent to me given my daughter's disposition for chattiness.) If we all support our teachers by reminding our kids to be on their best behavior, it will make these last days flow smoother.

One way to celebrate another successful year is to come to our end-of-year party tomorrow night. Kids and parents alike have fun at this event and we all get rewarded with a great book fair where you buy a book and get the second one free. Donelle Johnson, one of our PTO VP's has run the book fairs for the last two years. She has done an outstanding job and each one earns us credits for more books or money for our PTO needs. This is her last year of serving on the PTO board and FHCS will miss her and all that she has done.

The PTO has some new people joining the board next year and they will be great – we are all very pleased that we have some returning board members (Linda Pileggi and Lydia Dunham are coming back to keep the books and Gina Duxbury is taking over as President.) Kim Hogan is going to be our secretary, Nita Watson coupled with Marissa Watson will be our new Co-VP's and Sari Roth-Roemer and I will be supporting the FHCS by attending PTO meetings and helping out wherever we can.

Next year is already being planned by our President-elect, Gina Duxbury. Gina and Nita recently attended a fund-raiser tradeshow and came back with some very interesting and fun money raisers for next year.

Good luck to everyone as this year winds down and summer begins! The entire PTO board wishes you a safe, healthy and relaxing summer and we look forward to a new school year starting on August 8th.

Sincerely-

JL Jackson, PTO President
